White House Aides
Named By Schwartz,
Ousted As Counsel

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) said today he would return files given him by a House subcommittee aide who was ousted in a row over a probe of federal regulatory agencies. Morse said he also would demand a Senate probe of the same matters.

The senator, asserting that he would return the files to the subcommittee, reported that he had read the files and that they "prove the administration is honeycombed with political immorality."

Morse, interviewed from Washington on the NBC-TV "Today" program originating in New York, said he believed the files given him by the ousted subcommittee aide rightfully belonged to the House group and therefore he would return them.

White House Aides Cited

Morse has been a persistent critic of the Eisenhower administration.

The ousted subcommittee aide, Dr. Bernard Schwartz, has said the material he gave Morse could help show that some White House officials "have influenced actions of the regulatory agencies."

Schwartz said he turned over his "personal working files" to Morse Monday after he was fired as chief counsel of the special House subcommittee investigating the Federal Communications Commission and five other regulatory agencies.

Rep. Harris (D-Ark.), who took over as subcommittee chairman after Rep. Moulder (D-Mo.) quit in protest over the Schwartz firing, told a reporter: "All we want is the files back. And we're going to get them. I think, without difficulty because I know the senator's attitude on propriety and good government."

Harris said lack of the files would be "a great handicap," but he would not necessarily block the House probe. Meantime, he posted a guard over present committee files to prevent any more disappearing.

Schwartz, after a day of angry quarreling with the subcommittee, charged there is an effort to camouflage corruption charges.

He accused a majority of the subcommittee of joining "an unholy alliance between big business and the White House to obtain a whitewash" of the investigation into the regulatory agencies.

His firing, he charged, stopped him from revealing "the machinations of the White House clique in controlling decisions of these

Gas Bill Due For Setback, Liberals Say

WASHINGTON (AP)—Self-styled Democratic liberals made it clear today they will be prepared to cite the natural gas bill both in Congress and in the fall election campaign.

Both proponents and opponents of the controversial measure agreed, however, that the bill's chances of passage were lessened by the furor over a Texas dinner.

Texas Republicans raised $100,000 Monday night through a $100-a-plate dinner in Houston, advertised as an appreciation dinner for House Republican Leader Martin Dies, H. J. Porter, Texas Republican national committeeman, urged contributors to purchase tickets because, he said in a letter, Martin had helped to pass a natural gas bill in 1955 and would need to muster support of 65 per cent of the GOP members to pass the bill this year.

Both the White House and the Republican National Committee disavowed any connection with the appeal and the national committee said it would accept none of the money. Porter and other Texas party officials said they did not know what would be done with the proceeds.

Martin said he also knew nothing in advance about the gas bill's connection with the dinner.

Racial Decision Upheld By Court

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The U. S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals today upheld a lower court order directing the admission of seven Negro students to four white Arlington County schools. The order was issued last September by Federal Judge Albert V. Bryan.

In sustaining the integration order, the appellate court said: "We think that the order was clearly proper for reasons already stated in the opinion of the district judge and nothing need be added to what was said there."

Father Given Pen Term In Baby Beating

LEBANON, Mo. (AP)—Bert Blackburn, 26, an illiterate Ozarks farmer, was sentenced yesterday to three years in prison for mistreating a 3½-year-old son.

Blackburn's common-law wife, Velie Davis, 24, was sentenced to two years in prison the day before on a similar charge.

Little David Lee Blackburn was so mauled and starved when he was brought to a Lebanon hospital by Blackburn's mother three weeks ago that doctors feared he would die. He had a fractured skull and bruises and abrasions all over his head, back and legs.

One finger and one toe were missing. The top of another finger and part of his right ear were gone.

He is improving but still isn't strong enough to sit up.

Blackburn and Miss Davis accused each other of beating the boy with a coal shovel and a stick of fire wood. They were trying to train him to use the toilet.

Some Relief From Record Cold Sighted

By The Associated Press

Storms subsided but the season's coldest weather continued today in most areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast.

No immediate general relief from the nearly week-long cold wave was indicated. However, there was a slight moderation in temperatures in some Southern and Eastern sections yesterday.

Another morning of subzero cold chilled the Great Lakes region harbor mouth and to fire on any of the northern Plains. A slight warming trend in the upper Mississippi Valley kept the mercury above zero in most places. But it was cold, with readings close to zero.

One of the lowest early morning marks was 23 degrees below zero at Pellston, Mich.

More freezing weather plagued the Gulf Coast states, excluding Florida, which reported light rain over wide areas.

New York state reported 23 deaths attributed to the stormy cold weather while the toll in other areas in the Eastern half of the country was 33, for a total of 56. Overexertion in snow or ice accidents on icy highways accounted for most of the deaths.

Tunis Asks French Get Troops Out

Assembly Supports
Algerian Command
In Aerial Assault

BULLETIN

TUNIS (AP)—President Habib Bourguiba said today that only the removal of all French troops from Tunisia could restore friendly relations with France.

He spoke after a series of meetings with foreign diplomats to whom he expressed his attitude on the French bombing of the village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef last Saturday.

By DAVID MASON

PARIS (AP)—Angry Tunisia pressed military and diplomatic reprisals against France today as the French Assembly backed its Algerian command in the bombing of a Tunisian village.

France braced for further international repercussions after the Assembly gave Premier Felix Gaillard a thumping 339-179 vote of support. Gaillard defended Saturday's air strike against Sakiet Sidi Youssef as an act of "legitimate defense," against Algerian rebels based in Tunisia.

Tunisia said the attack left 68 dead, 84 wounded and 10 missing and denied the border town was a rebel base.

The Tunisian government of President Habib Bourguiba launched a campaign to starve out the 15,000 to 20,000 French troops still in Tunisia and French naval forces based at the big Bizerte base.

Tunisian National Guardsmen were reported blocking the land approaches to the Bizerte base and threatening to fire on any French ships entering the port.

The government also threatened to sink ferries in the narrow harbor mouth and to fire on any of the northern Plains. A slight warming trend in the upper Mississippi Valley kept the mercury above zero in most places. But it was cold, with readings close to zero.

One of the lowest early morning marks was 23 degrees below zero at Pellston, Mich.

G-Man Will Testify In Espionage Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—The prosecution called in an FBI agent today in support of court-martial charges that M. Sgt. Roy A. Rhodes sold information to Soviet spies.

Rhodes pleaded innocent to charges of espionage conspiracy and falsifying a loyalty oath at the opening yesterday of his military trial.

Maj. Winchester Kelso Jr., prosecuting attorney, said it will be proved that while Rhodes was assigned to the U. S. Embassy in Moscow from 1951 to 1953 he peddled information to the Soviets for a fee.

That, Kelso said, was after Rhodes went night clubbing and drinking with a Soviet mechanic and two Soviet women, and would be up in the apartment of one of the latter.

Subsequently, he said, Soviet agents told Rhodes the woman was pregnant and used this as a threat to extract information.

Rhodes is married and his wife says she is standing by him because she believes in his innocence. Their home is Eatontown, N. J.

The tall, lean, 40-year-old sergeant listened intently but expressed himself as Kelso told the officers on the court-martial that Rhodes met the Soviets five or six times in Moscow, gave them information about his training in code work at the Pentagon and information on the habits of U. S. Embassy personnel, and received some $3,000.

Kelso said Rhodes also told the Soviets where he could be contacted. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Eisenhower Sees Pickup Next Month

Voices Concern
Over Recession,
Offers Remedies

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today expressed deep concern over unemployment hardship, and said he is confident the picture will start to brighten in March.

In a statement, the President left open the possibility that unemployment—which climbed to nearly 4½ million last month—will get worse before the situation improves.

Obviously troubled about the business recession, the President got out a special statement and also released a study reporting on government steps to combat it.

Voices Own Opinion

In the statement Eisenhower said:

"From the best advice I can get, and on my own study of the facts regularly placed before me, I believe that we have had most of our bad news on the unemployment front."

"I am convinced that we are not facing a prolonged downswing in activity."

"Every indication is that March will commence to see the start of a pickup in job opportunities, that should mark the beginning of the end of the downturn in our economy, provided we apply ourselves with confidence to the job ahead. As Americans we have a responsibility to work toward the early resumption of sound growth in our economy."

In setting forth the government already has taken or plans to take to deal with the recession, Eisenhower added that if other measures should be needed, "I assure they shall be proposed—and in time."

Eisenhower's survey of the economic situation came less than 24 hours after:

1. The government reported that joblessness last month increased to 4,500,000—the biggest monthly rise since the depression of the 1930s.

2. Eisenhower followed up swiftly with announcement that he is asking Congress to authorize a two billion dollar program of modernization of post offices and post-roads over three to five years.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks has predicted that unemployment will climb to about five million this month and then commence a downward seasonal trend.

Newsmen Quiz Hagerty
James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, was asked whether Eisenhower's prediction that joblessness will begin to decline in March means that the administration looks for an increase in February.

In direct reply, Hagerty simply said: "That's all I can say."

Postal Hike Faces Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, moving to shore up the slumping economy, sent to Congress today a two-billion-dollar program to modernize post offices and postal services.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty, disclosing plans for the postal modernization program, described it as one expected to "afford greater job opportunities in every section of the country."

Jersey City Water Leak Found, Emergency Ends

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — This waterfront city returned to normal today as people turned on their faucets without hesitation and walked the streets without fear.

The state of emergency declared when an underground water main burst and spewed water into some unlocated spot ended yesterday with the discovery that the water had been flowing harmlessly into the Hackensack River.

The break, which for a time Sunday night left a third of this city of 300,000 without water, had raised the threat of cave-ins or explosions. Officials feared the gushing water might either undermine foundations and topple buildings or erupt in a great burst somewhere in the city.

City engineers made a valve-by-valve check of the 34-year-old water system and finally discovered the leak in a 36-inch standby main that runs under the Hackensack River.

Public Works Commissioner August W. Heckman estimated 18 million gallons had been lost during the 35 hours that the break remained unlocated.

Scouts Present Rotary Program

Troop 7, Boy Scouts of America, presented a program at yesterday's meeting of the Cumberland Rotary Club at Central YMCA.

The program, "Boy Scouts of America," was arranged by John Lindner, a member of the troop committee. Charles Steiner, chairman of the troop committee, presented a new troop flag to Ronald Straw, senior patrol leader.

The local Rotary Club has sponsored the troop for more than 33 years.

The troop will commemorate the founding of the Boy Scout movement in America at a covered dish supper on Thursday at 6:30 p. m. in the basement of Melvin Methodist Church.

Mrs. Kathleen Kave is in charge of the supper and is being assisted by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Street. A Court of Honor will be held following the supper.

Scientists
Home From Russia Exile

BERLIN — (INS) — Fifteen smiling German scientists returned to their homeland today after more than ten years of forced exile in Russia.

With 18 members of their families, they reached Frankfurt-On-The-Oder in East Germany this morning aboard the Moscow-Berlin Express and there transferred to a special train going west.

The Russian commander of the Moscow-Berlin Express said all of the scientists were going to Bonn, but presumably they first will pass through the West German reception camp at Friedland.

The scientists, who brought only few belongings, came from Suchumi on the Caucasian coast of the Black Sea where they had been working in Soviet laboratories since shortly after World War II.

The group included physicists and missile technicians but they reportedly were not engaged in important work during recent years.

Six more German scientists are scheduled to return from Suchumi.

After years of trying, the West German Government recently got Russia to agree to repatriate the scientists.

Jobless Pay
In January
Sets Record

Kimble Notes Average
Check Size Risen
In Recent Years

BALTIMORE — Maryland paid more money to its unemployed workers last month than in any other month in its history, the Department of Employment Security announced today.

Robert B. Kimble, executive director, said the record was set because the size of the average benefit check has risen in recent years. He noted that more checks were mailed in May, 1946 because of the added number of jobless veterans.

Maryland unemployed received a total of $5,925,460 during January, an increase of 60.5 per cent over December.

The number of checks mailed to the unemployed last month was 61 per cent higher than the December figure and 157.5 per cent above the number issued in January 1957.

Benefit payments in December totaled $3,692,359 and checks mailed during that month amounted to 123,075.

Kimble attributed increased unemployment last month to temporary and indefinite layoffs in broad areas of trade and industry. He mentioned specifically primary metals, the apparel industry, construction, transportation equipment and manufacturing, the seafood industry and the food-processing industry.

Lack of work or sales orders were sighted by many employers as the reason for new layoffs. Bad weather continued to curtail construction and seafood activities.

Kimble said the number of post-holiday layoffs this year were greater than usual.

New layoffs were heaviest in early January but the number has tapered off in recent weeks. Initial claims, reflecting new unemployment, reached a peak of 10,414 during the first week of January, then dropped to a low of 5,624 in the last week of the month.

Initial claims for the entire month totaled 37,726, an increase of 33.4 per cent over December and 91.9 per cent over the same month in 1957.

JC Drops Voice Event

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Junior Chamber of Commerce has withdrawn from the voice of democracy contest because it charged the other two sponsors were very undemocratic in their conduct of the program.

The National Association of Broadcasters and the Electronics Industries Association were accused by Jaycee President Charles E. Shearer Jr. of using the contest as a lobbying device and among the Jaycee complaints was that the $500 prizes for national winners were not in the form of college scholarships as they were supposed to be but were paid by personal checks.

OUR COUNTRY

The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever.—Morris.

Immortal Words

IT WAS NOV. 19, 1863. Nearly five months before the Great Battle had been fought, the battle that was to prove the midpoint and turning point of the bloodiest war the young nation had ever known. A National Cemetery was to be dedicated. A board of commissioners, formed of governors of the northern states whose troops had been involved, had invited the man considered to be the greatest living American orator to deliver the main address. Already the ceremonies had been postponed a month in order to allow the speaker time to prepare his speech. A formal invitation was sent to the President of the United States and, as an afterthought, he was asked to make a few appropriate remarks following the principal oration, though some question had been raised by members of the board as to "his ability to speak upon such a grave and solemn occasion." When the day came, the President, as one witness wrote, "said his half dozen words of consecration, and the music wailed and we went home through crowded and cheering streets. And all the particulars are in the daily papers."

THOSE "HALF DOZEN" simple words of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address have rung down the decades with ever increasing meaning and inspiration. We do not celebrate the Battle of Gettysburg, it is Lincoln's birthday that we set aside as the day on which to honor the memory of him who stands like an Everest in our history. Yet it seems fitting today on this anniversary of his birth to especially remember Lincoln as he was at Gettysburg. For it was not only the midpoint of the war which so profoundly shaped this nation's destiny, it is still nearly the midpoint of the whole American story. Lincoln reminded his listeners that only 87 years stood between them and that day on which a new nation, conceived in liberty, had been brought forth. Men who had been alive that day were still living when Lincoln spoke.

TODAY AMERICA faces a challenge to the principles to which it was dedicated in 1776 and rededicated by Lincoln in 1863—a challenge no less grave than any it has ever faced before. And like the challenge of Lincoln's day, the danger lies not so much in a foreign enemy, but within ourselves—that we not lose by default what the blood and sacrifice of previous generations have gained. Gettysburg could have given cause for over optimism to the Union, just as America's first satellite could now give us an excuse to return to the comfortable complacency which was only recently so rudely jarred. But Gettysburg did not decide the Civil War; the Civil War decided Gettysburg. No, Lincoln on that day did not call for jubilation or resting on laurels. Rather, he humbly prayed for rededication and new resolution. The nation could have taken a different course after Gettysburg; the course it will take today is not yet decided. The present is as much a pivot point in history as was 1863. The task remains: the same challenge, in a new form, is still before us. The challenge, as Lincoln said at another time, of whether "we shall nobly save or meanly lose the last, best hope of earth."

Plugging A Rathole

EVERYONE WHO wants to see the tax laws applied fairly and fully will be pleased that Congress has acted to plug a surprising gap in the income tax withholding system. A story in the Cleveland Press awoke the lawmakers to the realization that some employers who deduct taxes from their workers' paychecks were actually pocketing the money instead of turning it over to the government. It is estimated that 400,000 employers owe the U.S. $279 million in withholding taxes and social security taxes collected but not paid over. Under the bill approved by both houses and expected to be signed by the President, delinquent employers hereafter will be required to deposit taxes due in a special bank account payable to the Internal Revenue Service. Obviously this is a flaw in the tax law that ought to have been discovered and corrected a long time ago. But, considering the sums of money involved, it seems right to say: Better late than never.

Is Johnson Paving Way To White House?

WASHINGTON—Lyndon Johnson has now firmly staked his Presidential hopes in the wild blue yonder.

As Majority Leader of the Senate, Johnson can pick and choose his committee assignments as no other Senator can. He rode his Preparedness subcommittee into the post- Sputnik headlines. His new chairmanship of the special committee which will deal with the problems of exploration of outer space will keep Johnson well in the forefront of the news.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—Since we, as taxpayers, are about a million dollars out of pocket every time a rocket firing fails at Cape Canaveral in Florida, it seems to me that we have at least a portion of a right to ask a few questions.

This questioning mood is not born of hysteria, fright, anger or even disappointment. It is a simple matter of arithmetic. A fraction of my tax money goes up in smoke and flame whenever the Navy or any other arm of the services has a failure and I don't particularly, as an individual, like the way the failures are described in such cavalier fashion.

EXAMPLE: One airplane manufacturing company is generally responsible for the main factoring of the Vanguard. It may subcontract hits and pieces, valves and gauges, but the major contract for providing a successful Vanguard rocket is in the hands and is the responsibility of this company.

It happens to be a company which, in the manufacture of aircraft, has not been free of some spectacular crashes. At those times its name was used freely in the press. It seems to me odd and worth inquiry that except for extremely fugitive mentions of the company by name, no one ever would know that this company has Vanguard responsibility.

THE NAVY is blamed, one or two civilian scientists are blamed, even some governmental persons, but in both miserable failures of the Vanguard rocket the name of this company seemed to be hidden as though by design.

"Life" magazine did once mention it, at the time of the first failure. One reporter, not connected with any of the three major news services, mentioned it at the time of the recent second failure. All I want to know is: why is the American taxpayer not informed of where the responsibility must lie?

EXAMPLE: although the Vanguard has twice in succession proved itself an inferior space vehicle, there seems to be no governmental effort to shunt it to one side and proceed with our taxpayers' money in further perfection of the Thor (Air Force) and Jupiter C (Army) rockets, each of which has had several successful firings.

I think you have a right to ask your Congressman why your money is being used to pay for a demonstrated dud, a twice demonstrated dud, when successful rockets are at hand and have proved themselves.

IF we need for time is desperate, if we are literally wrenching ourselves to come out even in the space race, why do we cling to a cumbersome three-service way of experimentation instead of lumping all the money into one

HE REPORTED back that the planet Mercury isn't much good for anything except possibly a stone quarry. It has no gas around it, not even air, and it consists mostly of rock, like the Moon.

Although it is not exactly a planet, the Moon is reasonably close, and Ankeny considered that. It has no water and no wind. No air, either. Its outer skin is volcanic rock; its interior also seems to be made of rock similar to our own. The moon doesn't seem to be much good except for shining on young lovers. There's no need to do any shoveling there.

NEW YORK — Playwright Peter Ustinov is a man with no desire to put his plastic mind inside a plastic helmet.

NEW YORK — Playwright Peter Ustinov is a man with no desire to put his plastic mind inside a plastic helmet.

"I am convinced that in opening up the space age we will take ourselves mentally back to the 11th and 12th century," said the author and star of the Broadway satire, "Romanoff and Juliet," which spoofs the cold war between the United States and the Soviet Union.

AT 35 USTINOV, the London-born son of a Russian newspaperman, has become a literary enfant terrible of two continents. He bears a pudgy, bearded resemblance to Anton Chekhov. He talks like a mixture of Oscar Wilde, Bernard Shaw and H. L. Menckens.

As busy as he is unorthodox, Ustinov—he speaks five languages—has written a dozen plays and 20 novels, acted in 10 movies and produced three. He is also a lecturer, a television star—and is currently turning out a novel.

PERSONALLY ONE of the most charming imports from Britain in many a year, Ustinov—as the stagehands call him—gives the impression of a chubby teddy bear that delights in airing out-of-the-ordinary views.

Here are a few random sparks struck during a luncheon interview:

"I dislike the military mind and politicians. The relative importance of politicians during their lifetime is out of all proportion to their importance in history. Who today can name the minister of finance in Austria when Beethoven lived there?"

Tax Collector Obtains 77 Per Cent Of Levy

The city tax collector has obtained $1,557,803 of its record $2,005,860 levy for the 1957-58 fiscal year.

This represents 77 per cent of the budget, according to the report by City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson, for the seven months ending January 31.

The report showed tax collections had reached the 94.32 point and total collections on the levy was 77.66 per cent. Expenditures totaled 50.58 per cent of operating appropriations, well under par of 52.33 per cent.

As February began, the city had collected $1,139,029.32 of its tax levy, leaving only $63,600.68 to be collected.

From all sources, the city had collected $1,557,803.25, representing nearly 78 per cent of the all-time high $2,005,860 levy.

Still to be collected from levied funds was $453,607.79.

Only one source has brought in excess funds.

The city's share of taxes collected by the state on horse racing last year has reached $45,551.04, providing $5,511.04 in the excess collections column.

Most other sources of state-shared tax income seemed to be coming in as anticipated.

Sewer service charges, to meet costs of maintaining the treatment plant and lines, totaled $71,359.62, leaving $176,140.38 still to come in.

Spent for city operations during the seven months was $841,381.42, leaving $821,945.33 to provide city services until June 30.

Most city departments seemed to be operating within their budgets.

For example, the Fire Department had spent $136,870.49 from its $268,200 appropriation. The allocation for the department included $12,000 as part payment

Wall Street Hears...

NEW YORK — (INS) — Wall Street hears: For Eastern Gas & Fuel 1957 was the best year in its history, with gross around $190 million and net in excess of $42.5 a share vs. $176.9 million gross and net of $3.61 a share in 1956.

Indianapolis Power & Light income for last year was slightly above $2 a share, about the same as 1956.

National Distillers & Chemical 1958 earnings are being forecast at about 10 per cent above the $2.05 earned in 1957.

H. J. Heinz was the food equity bought most heavily by investment trusts in the last quarter, Harris, Upham's All Bookbinder reports. He sees a possibility of $2.20 dividend could be raised by next year.

"The fact 1958 is an election year," Joseph E. Granville of E. F. Hutton and Company, observes, "is a pretty good indication that further anti-recessionary moves are in the works."

Burlington Road carloadings in the first quarter will be about 5 per cent below last year, but revenues should hold up slightly better because of freight rate increases.

Bell Aircraft net last year was about 30 per cent below the 1956 level, but management hopes sales and earnings in 1958 will be as high or higher than in 1957.

Market comment—William R. White of Hornblower and Weeks: "Because earning power governs market values in the long run, it is difficult to find a basis for enthusiasm in prospective corporate statements."

Business Briefs...

NEW YORK — (INS) — American controls by Congress. Gordon Express Company reported today Simpson announced to continued decline in U. S. drilling programs, further drops in exploratory activity and severe depression of oil output as evidence the present voluntary import program must be "strengthened."

NEW YORK — (INS) — The New York Stock Exchange announced today that its monthly investment plan (MIP) in its first four years has resulted in the investment of $80,600,000 in 2,059,165 shares of stock. Federal Aid Road Speed Up Studied survey by SRC engineers of every mile of Maryland highway. It will point out needs for changes to the General Assembly but will leave any legislative action for a new and revised program for the next session.

State Chairman Robert O. Bonnell told the House and Senate committees last night that the 12-year program, now extended to 15 years to coincide with federal interstate aid, is way behind schedule because of rising costs.

70 Per Cent Completed
He said only 70 per cent of the work scheduled in the first four years was completed or advertised by last December and that those projects will reach only 87 per cent of completion in this fifth year. Meanwhile, the SRC expects to spend $332,244,633 on the projects in the first four years compared to $249,793,000 originally planned.

It is limited on how fast it can go by how much the State takes in on gasoline and motor vehicle revenues which finance the program. Of the 1262 miles of highway improvements planned in the first four years, only 822 miles 331 from Wadells Corner to the have been contracted or advertised. The SRC will let an additional 108 miles this year, leaving 165 still unadvertised.

The overall program envisions construction of 3,452 miles. Bonnell said that with the whopping increase of federal aid from the interstate highway program and rising construction costs, the original 568-million-dollar State Program has become one which will require an outlay of $1,156,733,825 for 15 years. But 183 miles of this is federal interstate for which the federal government is paying 90 per cent of the cost.

Deficit Reported
The state now figures to spend $613,737,000 over the life of the program and the federal government $466,308,950, leaving a deficit of 66 million for the State to make up between now and then. Bonnell said most of it may be accounted for through recovery of federal funds for projects the State had already constructed to interstate standards before the 1956 Federal Highway Act.

Here is the way the first four years of the program lags in the Eastern Shore's District 1:

Dorchester County had 24.4 miles scheduled at an estimated cost of $2,068,000, of which 18.5 miles have been completed or advertised for $2,637,133. The SRC will advertise or start 3.5 additional miles this year to bring the first phase of the program within 90 per cent of completion.

Somerset had 37.5 miles scheduled at $5,635,000, of which 30.5 miles have been completed or advertised at a cost of $5,761,913. This year 1.9 miles will be added to complete 86.2 per cent of the projects.

More Work Listed
Wicomicen had 31.66 miles scheduled at $4,781,000, of which 25.5 have been completed or advertised at a cost of $5,346,941. This year 1.6 miles will be added to complete 89 per cent of the projects.

Worcester had 53.2 miles scheduled at $6,213,000, of which 39.3 have been completed or advertised at a cost of $6,541,249. This year 6.7 miles will be added to complete 86.6 per cent of the projects.

The 1958 construction program for these areas breaks down as follows:

The State Roads Commission filed this action against Lily Burkett, Grace B. Snider, widow, and the Mt. Savage Refractories Company and deposited a check for $1,600 as a reasonable price for the land.

When the three board members, William S. Jenkins, Charles L. Kopp and William M. George, signed the award last week they designated Mrs. Snider as recipient of the $1,600.

SRC Gets Bids On Area Jobs

The State Roads Commission received bids yesterday on two major highway projects in this area with the low bids on both jobs exceeding $2,310,000.

The S. T. Brotemarkle Construction Company, of Cumberland, submitted the apparent low bid of $1,021,578.35 for the construction of 2.35 miles of Route 10 between Martin and Polish mountains.

The George F. Hazelwood Company of Cumberland, was second at $1,111,833.70 and T. Edgie Russell, of Frederick, third at $1,131,918.50.

The Flintstone link begins at the easterly end of the Martin Mountain project, completed last fall, and extends to near Gilpin town, where the Pulaski Mountain project, slated for completion this summer, begins.

G. Bates Chaires, district SRC engineer, said the contract includes a three-span, prestressed concrete bridge over Flintstone Road Route 135 from Mt. Lake Creek. Plans call for 32, 40 and 32-foot spans and a 48-foot roadway.

The Flintstone link of the Route 40 project will bypass and line of the B&O Railroad and go slightly north of that community. Plans call for the construction of a two-lane highway on a route which is about 90 per cent relocation and fairly flat.

Bids on this job were opened two weeks ago and the low bidder, at $137,309, was David Goldberg and Son, Uniontown. Five other firms bid on the job.

Bids on two other county projects have been opened this year by the State Roads Commission.

They include a 1.83 mile stretch of the Cumberland Thruway from the Everts Creek Bridge to Crawford Street, for which the Cumberland Contracting Company bid low at $779,505.56, and improvements to 0.89 miles of Route 40 from Route 36 toward Long, on which the S. T. Brotemarkle Company submitted the low bid of $363,810.20.

Mrs. Catherine Mulligan was named chairman of the group; Mrs. Alice Shippe, secretary and Mrs. Amy Stewart, treasurer. Meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month at 1:30 p. m. in the school.

Scouts Given Flag — The Mt. Savage PTA met recently in the school auditorium. Wilson Sweeney, vice president, presided and the meeting was opened with prayer led by Rev. Lawrence C. Butler, the flag salute and singing of "America."

The program chairman, Miss Marian Bevens, introduced Scouts who were to present the evening program with Arthur King Sr., patrol leader, as announcer. Hubert Radcliffe presented the group with a troop flag, followed by a candlelighting ceremony.

The regular business meeting followed. Mrs. John Wingert gave a report of the County PTA Council meeting. Mrs. Trexler asked for at least 15 volunteers to start a first aid course which would last five weeks. The nominating committee appointed includes Mrs. Louis Arnold, Miss Mary T. Witt, Miss Kathleen McDermitt, Mrs. John Wingert and Mrs. Francis Trimble.

Principal Radcliffe stated that there will be a magazine sold campaign to help boost the library fund. Attendance awards were given to the following rooms: Blaine Gainer, Leslie Atwater, Miss Leah Huff and Mrs. Bert Caldar.

Birthdays were set in the cafeteria and refreshments were served. Mrs. Dickel, Mrs. Frankenberg and Mrs. Sarah Carter of the Eleventh Grade mothers will be in charge of serving at the next meeting.

Christmas Tree Growers To Meet — The Maryland Tree Growers Association will hold its annual winter meeting in the Oakland fire hall today at 8 p. m.

The theme is "Marketing." On hand to address the group will be Dr. G. M. Beal, professor of agricultural economics and marketing at the University of Maryland. In addition to conducting time studies during the past season's harvest operations, Dr. Beal recently published a book entitled "Christmas Tree Marketing." Other items of business to be taken up include election of officers and market reports.

The tree growers organized in 1955 and now have 36 members from all sections of the state. The aim of the organization is to encourage the production and promote the sale of high quality Maryland evergreens.

Westernport
Water Level
Still Critical

WESTERNPORT — Westernport's water supply problem is getting more acute each day. Water Commissioner Alvin Pence warned last night.

Yesterday the supply in the town's reservoir on Chestnut Street stood at only four feet, six inches which would amount to about 280,000 gallons of water. Normally, the water depth in the reservoir is 17 feet which is an adequate supply of 750,000 gallons.

The level of the water in the reservoir has dropped two feet since Sunday. Handhills have been distributed throughout the community, urging residents to exercise care in the use of water. These appeals have been ignored by most people, Pence said.

The chief difficulty apparently is that many residents are leaving their water faucets running to keep their pipes from freezing. The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport are demanding that this practice cease immediately and that the washing of cars in garages also be stopped during this shortage.

If the shortage continues, it may be necessary to cut off the water supply to certain sections of Westernport during certain hours each day, the officials warned.

Scouts Mark
Anniversary

OLDTOWN — Boy Scout Week was celebrated recently by Troop 79 which marked its first anniversary with a Court of Honor and Parents Night program.

Ralph Rader, scoutmaster of the troop sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association and Sportsmen's Club, said a covered dish supper was held in the Oldtown School cafeteria with mothers of the Scouts assisting in serving the meal.

After the meal, a Court of Honor in charge of Rader was held. Wesley Davis became a Tenderfoot while 13 other members of the troop advanced to second class: Ralph Rader Jr., senior patrol leader, David Mallory, Lyle Bender, Edward Wolfe, Randy Ginevan, Elwood Ginevan, Robert Shaw, Lonnie Nixon, Jerry Taylor, Stephen Nixon, Floyd Wolfe, Gary Nixon and James Brown.

A demonstration on first aid was held and a report was given on constellations. Talks were offered by members of the troop on why they like scouting, what they have learned and why they think more boys of the community should join the troop.

Rev. William Anderson, pastor of the Methodist Church, gave the closing prayer. Guests included Willis V. Smith, Scout executive of Nemaquin District, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pelleri and Mrs. Lillie Conner, cafeteria cook. Pelleri is school principal.

In charge of the food committee were Mrs. Noah Carder, Mrs. Lawrence Mallory and Mrs. Ralph Rader.

ELLERSLIE — The WSCS of the Methodist Church met recently evening at the church hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Neal Wolfe, Mrs. Mae Beal and Mrs. Alma Connor.

Mrs. Sarah DeVore returned home after visiting relatives in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Giancoli, Washington, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeVore.

Fire Scare Caused
By Northern Lights

WESTERNPORT — The brilliant northern lights visible Monday night confused at least one resident of the Tri-Towns section, who telephoned the Potomac Fire Company that a home in the Firm Rock section of adjoining Garrett County was on fire.

After ascertaining that the caller had not seen flames, a fast phone call disclosed that the alarm was caused by the aurora borealis.

Federal Aid Road Speed Up Studied

ANNAPOLIS—(AP)—A possibility of speeding up construction of Maryland projects in the federal interstate highway program developed today after a legislative hearing with the State Roads Commission.

But other projects in the State's long-range highway modernization plans apparently will have to await action at the 1959 General Assembly.

The federal-aid projects may be built or started within the next two to three years instead of over the next 13 if details of a new financing scheme can be worked out and approved by the Legislature and federal authorities.

Would Issue Bonds
As developed at last night's hearing before the Senate Finance and House Ways and Means committees, it would involve issuing bonds to which the State's faith and credit would be pledged.

These would be redeemed as federal aid came in during the 13-year period.

The funds would be used to speed up construction of the Northeast Expressway from Baltimore to the Delaware line, complete beltways around Baltimore and Washington, and possibly other long-range projects tabbed for federal interstate aid in western Maryland.

The latter include U. S. 40 between Frederick and Hagerstown, portions of 40 between Hagerstown and Hancock and a section of U. S. 11 north of Hagerstown.

Could Save Money
The projects total 160 million dollars in the federal interstate program and are presently listed for construction over the next 13 years. A spokesman for the SRC said if they were completed right away the State would save money on them. He said the Northeast Expressway would take in enough money as a toll road to carry interest charges on the loans until they were redeemed.

Chairman Boone (D-Balto County) of the House Ways and Means Committee instructed Asst. Atty. Gen. Joseph D. Buscher, assigned to the SRC, to draw bills authorizing such expenditures but declining to speculate on their even-likelihood.

"We'll have to examine the bills, widen to 22 feet and resurface, 1.05 miles of U. S. 40 to said.

The roads activity highlighted a day in the legislature which also included committee hearings on a two-lane Maryland 36 highway project, creation of an economic development corporation to administer loans for small businesses, and the hardy perennial calling for more control of billboards alongside controlled access highways.

Will Give Details
Tonight the State Roads Commission will lay before the finance committee details for revamping other projects in Maryland's now outmoded and slowed down 12-year highway program.

They are expected to rejuggle priorities on roads whose traffic problems have increased since the plan was enacted in 1953 and call for some major new construction to meet present and future needs.

Washington—Railroad overpass for U. S. 40 through Hagerstown; 5 miles U. S. 40 from St. Paul's Church toward Hancock to modify curves, widen to 24 feet and resurface; 3 miles of Maryland 64 near the Pennsylvania line to Smithsburg, modify curves, widen to 24 feet and resurface; 6.6 miles of Maryland 67 from alternate U. S. 40 at Boonsboro to Hagerstown, modify curves, widen to 24 feet and resurface.

Since January 1, the State Roads Commission has opened bids on three Allegheny and two Garrett County projects. Low bids on the jobs exceeded $3,500,000.

B&O Planning Clerk Furlough
Just how many members of the clerical force of the B&O Railroad in Cumberland will be furloughed under the latest cutback order from railroad headquarters in Baltimore will not be known until sometime late this afternoon or tomorrow.

The exact number of furloughs is being worked out by individual regional managers.

The railroad blamed declining industrial production, resulting in a decrease in car loadings, for the furlough order.

A system-wide furlough of about 2,500 employees last November 1 included mostly shop and road workers. The second furlough on January 1 included 2,800 employees on the system.

The clerical force layoffs announced yesterday afternoon was expected in view of the furloughs in the shops and among road crews. With few workmen on duty in the railroad shops and a curtailment of road crews the clerical force did not have much work to process.

Church Votes On Property Sale Offer

Beth Jacob Makes Proposal To St. Luke's For Present Quarters

The congregation of St. Luke's Lutheran Church will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. to decide on the selling of its church and property, corner Columbia and Bedford streets.

Rev. William R. Snyder, pastor, said this morning that a bid for the property has been received from the Beth Jacob Congregation, 418 North Centre Street.

Rev. Mr. Snyder several months ago appointed a committee, headed by Charles Smith, to dispose of the property after it was voted to construct a new church on Frederick Street, Extended.

To Vote On Bid
Tomorrow's congregational meeting will be held to vote on the Beth Jacob bid, and also vote on the preliminary plans for the new church which have been prepared by T. Norman Mansell of Philadelphia.

Rev. Mr. Snyder said that if the congregation votes to accept the bid, the property will be vacated by his congregation by December 31, 1958.

Construction on the new church, which is estimated to cost $400,000, is expected to begin within the next five or six months, depending on whether the congregation votes to accept Mansell's drawings at tomorrow's meeting.

The new church will seat nearly 300 persons, and will include 20 rooms for Sunday School classes.

The architect's plans also call for a social room which will seat 400 persons, a general church office, a pastor office, church parlor, library, prayer chapel, robing room for the choir and a large play area.

Chapel For Weddings
The pastor said the prayer chapel will be used for small weddings and baptisms, and will be furnished with a number of items from the present church, including its altar, cross, candle sticks, and other items.

Rev. Mr. Snyder said a feature of the new church will be that a person may enter either the church or social hall from the same level without using any steps.

The congregation of St. Luke's Church started a financial pledge drive for the new building on July 1, 1955 and since that time a total of $150,000 has been received in offerings.

The money which is received from the purchase of the present building will be added to the $150,000, Rev. Mr. Snyder said.

Incinerator Meeting Set
City and Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company officials are scheduled to attend a meeting tomorrow afternoon in the office of Mayor Roy W. Eves during which the operation and safety features of a proposed incinerator on B&O property will be discussed.

City Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker last week refused to authorize the construction of the device, scheduled to be built at Offutt Street and Virginia Avenue. Chief Parker's protestations were directed against alleged safety violations that would result from the incinerator.

B&O spokesmen said representatives of the firm which would build the device will explain its operations and safety features. The rail firm would dispose of its waste oil in the incinerator, the B&O spokesmen said, so that it would not enter the city's sewerage system.

Scheduled to represent the city are Mayor Roy W. Eves, City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum, and City Engineer Charles R. Nuzum.

LIFE IN THE GREAT OUTDOORS—With the temperature staying just a few degrees above zero and the wind giving the cold a penetrating force, life in the outdoors is anything but comfortable these days. And yard workers on a railroad have no place for protection. A visit to the Western Maryland Railway yards here this morning showed men who have to make a living in the outdoors, come rain, cold, snow, sleet or heat. Dressed for the weather, are left to right, Gilbert Mayle, Beryl, a trackman; R. R. Deffenbaugh, Mt. Savage, car repairman; Joseph Stuckey, LaVale, brakeman. Outdoor workers have found indispensable the nylon quilted "longies," cutting down on the number of layers of clothing they have to wear.

LaSalle Asks Use Of County Farm Field

The Allegheny County Board of Commissioners was asked yesterday to allow the LaSalle High School football team use of the county farm on the local recruiter.

Norman Geatz, Jr., coach of the LaSalle football team, appeared before the board to make the request. He said the team has been using the playground of St. Peter and Paul Church on Mason Road and the cost of transporting the players to and from the field is about $500 to $600 per year.

Geatz said if the field is available the team would not only have more practice time but the cost to the school would be much less. In the event the field yields, the county any revenue the school would be willing to assume this payment.

Commissioner James Orr said he believes the field is planted in corn each spring. Geatz said he did not think it had been planted for the past few years. In any event, if the county would give the use of the field the school would pay for the corn crop which would be lost.

Commissioner William A. Wilson suggested that Geatz contact Earl Grim, superintendent of the County Home and Infirmary, to determine what use is made of the field. Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson said the field has not been used in recent years and he also suggested that the matter be looked into.

Teen Club Plans Dance Tonight
The Ridgeley Teen Club will hold a "Sweetheart Dance" today at the home of Knobley Mount, 36, American Legion, beginning at 7 p. m.

The Music will be by records and dances, which carry out the Valentine motif, were placed after the meeting, besides Mayor school classes. Refreshments will be served.

Students attending have been advised that the dance will be a "dress up" affair.

Police said the intruder entered the local club by breaking a rear window. The intruder carried out a floor safe in the barroom which contained more than $200.

The office at the local club was also forced open and an unknown amount of money was stolen.

Police said Bessie Stotter, secretary, discovered the breaking and entering when she reported for work this morning.

Fred Dean, a member of the board of directors of the Frostburg club, discovered the robbery there early this morning.

Nuclearonic Naval Openings Are Announced

The Navy is accepting an increased number of applications from high school graduates for the nuclear power training program, according to Chief Petty Officer Thomas L. Scarborough.

Chief Scarborough said once accepted into the program the young men will be assigned to an engineering, electronic or electrical school and then be given a year's training in nuclear power.

A majority of these young men will also be qualified for duty in submarines. All of them will be assigned to duties involving nuclear power.

The new program in nuclearonics will be started next July 1, according to Chief Scarborough.

$250 Stolen At Two Area Club Houses

The rash of breaking and entering which have been occurring in Cumberland the past several months spread into the county last night.

Sgt. William F. Baker, criminal investigator, today reported the Cumberland Country Club and the Maplehurst Country Club in Frostburg being robbed.

The local investigators said more than $200 in cash was taken from the local club, while approximately $50 is missing from the Frostburg club.

Police said the intruder entered the local club by breaking a rear window. The intruder carried out a floor safe in the barroom which contained more than $200.

The office at the local club was also forced open and an unknown amount of money was stolen.

Police said Bessie Stotter, secretary, discovered the breaking and entering when she reported for work this morning.

Crews To Clean Site Of Debris

Employees of the City Street Department and the E. J. Albrecht Company today began clearing debris from the Blue Spring area along Wills Creek.

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz said officials of the Albrecht firm that is doing the flood control work in Wills Creek had agreed to lend equipment and manpower to help remove debris from Blue Spring that had resulted from flood control operations in the area.

Buchholtz also said that the spring will be restocked with fish, explaining that Regional Game Warden Joseph A. Minke had assured him of a number of trout for the water.

The walls enclosing the spring will be pointed up, ivy planted, and other landscaping done to make the site as pleasant as it was prior to the flood control work, Buchholtz said.

Oakland Has 17 Below Recording

Area Temperatures To Remain Low; Little Snow Seen

The area's lowest official temperature—17 below—was recorded at Oakland during the night, while a number of spots reported zero or below zero readings.

The five-day forecast of the Weather Bureau for Western Maryland and West Virginia calls for little change from this frigid spell.

Allegheny and Garrett counties will have fair and cold weather tonight with the low by morning between zero and ten degrees. Tomorrow and Friday are to be partly cloudy with little change in temperatures.

Coldest Of Winter

R. E. Weber, Oakland, official observer there, reported the overnight minimum 17 degrees below zero was the coldest of this winter.

At Deal, Pa., just across the state line on Little Savage Mountain, it was ten degrees below zero at the Western Maryland Railway tower.

It was six below at Savage River Dam, five below at LaVale; two below at Elkins; four above at Cumberland, Frostburg and Lake Gordon; and one above at Luke.

The five-day forecast said Maryland will be six degrees below the normal for this month, with little day to day variations.

For West Virginia temperatures through Monday will average eight to ten degrees below normal with little day to day change. Light snow and snow flurries are forecast throughout the period. Seasonal normals for the northern part of the state are 33 degrees.

Continue Road Work

The State Roads Commission said the crews are still working to widen the Garrett County highways that are bordered by high piles of snow.

The big rotary plow was put in use early this morning on Route 40 in the eastern part of Garrett County.

Roads are still icy and snow covered in spots in that county. Garrett County Roads Department reported most secondary roads have been opened, but Edison Company in Cumberland and Hagerstown and for the Blue Ridge lines, died last night in today after being closed yesterday.

He was a former professional baseball player, starting with Macon, Ga. He later was a catcher for Wilmington, N. C., in a Southeastern League, and Beckley, W. Va., of the Middle Atlantic League. After moving to Cumberland in 1933 he played baseball on local teams.

Interment will be in the Rest Haven Cemetery, Hagerstown. The body may be viewed on Saturday, tomorrow and Friday, at the funeral home.

The family will be at the funeral home to receive friends tomorrow, filled the cover of a flashlight tube with a 'special' fuel, and the demonstration was ready to be presented.

The eyes of the Atlantic Coast Conference will be on the University of Maryland's Terrapins the next few days.

Duke is in the national spotlight and in first place in the ACC as a result of its great play in recent weeks, but the Terrapins cannot be counted out.

In fact, they are very much in the race, moving into second place last night when the white-hot Blue Devils knocked North Carolina State's Wolfpack off the top rung. Coach Bud Millikan only yesterday expressed the opinion that his Maryland team will get better and predicted that the best effort of the season is yet to come from his College Park cagers.

If that outstanding performance happens to come February 21 against Duke at Durham, the ACC standings could become as jumbled as an unstarted jigsaw puzzle.

First, however, there are two big ones staring the nation's ninth-ranking hoop artists squarely in the eyes. The first comes tomorrow evening at College Park where the Millikan machine collides with Clemson. The second is scheduled for Saturday afternoon in a regionally televised battle from Raleigh, N. C. against the Wolfpack.

This pair has to be considered "big" as two of the three defeats the Terrapins have suffered this year came at the hands of Clemson and NC State. The other defeat was a triple-overtime loss to Memphis State in the finals of the Sugar Bowl tournament in late December.

Maryland dropped a 73-65 decision at Clemson as the Terrapins were winding up their Christmas holiday road trip. Jim Hallock and Tom Young missed this game because of injuries, but both will be available to Millikan tomorrow.

Against the Deacons Maryland will floor a starting lineup averaging better than 6-4. This club comprises John Naeinick, Nick Davis, Al Bunge, Young and Charley McNeil. Davis has been as hot as a depot stove of late in carrying the Maryland scoring load.

The Terrapins will leave Friday for Raleigh with revenge in their hearts. As Everett Case's NC State team handed them their only loss of the season on the home court, winning 57 to 48 on January 20.

After the State game, Maryland has five contests remaining on its schedule. Virginia will be met at home, followed by Duke and North Carolina away and winding up with a pair of home attractions featuring Georgetown and South Carolina.

After that comes the ACC tournament (March 6-7) at Raleigh which promises to be a dog-eat-dog affair. Few conferences in the country are any stronger than the Atlantic Coast. It may even be the best. Last year it produced the national champion in undefeated North Carolina and it is reasonable to feel that history could repeat this season.

About Sam Rainey

He couldn't run worth a darn, but man how he could hit!

That was Sam Rainey, the onetime catcher of Cumberland's Potomac Edison baseball team, who died yesterday in Hagerstown of a heart ailment.

Sam came to Cumberland after starting on the great Beckley (W. Va.) team of 1932 which set the Middle Atlantic League afire with its blazing bats. No less than nine Black Knights finished the season with averages of .300 or better. They had a team batting mark of .309.

Fred Sington, who was to go up with Washington, led the league with a sizzling .368 average. But Rainey, who divided the catching duties with Coult, was just a shade behind at .365. Saturday's 91-75 romp over North Carolina, the Blue Devil story is somewhat different.

In those six games, Duke has averaged 75.8 points a game to the opposition's 62.5, a difference of 13.3 a game.

Meantime, the individual race is still Pete Brennan's private show. The Tar Heel's now averaging 20.2 points a game to 18.0 for Herb Busch of Virginia.

Duke Proving Late-Season Sensation In ACC

Blue Devils Trim State, Grab Lead; Terps Gain

By FRED DE LUCA
NEW YORK—(INS)—Duke, an early-season bust, is proving a late-season sensation in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Blue Devils, who could do no better than split their first ten games, now own a string of eight victories and are sitting atop the ACC basketball standings.

Seven of those wins were over conference foes. The other came against West Virginia and stands as the Mountaineers' only loss thus far.

The streak came full circle last night. It started against North Carolina State Jan. 11 when Duke won, 76 to 75, in double overtime. Win No. 8 also was against the Wolfpack, but this time it was at Raleigh, N. C., and more convincing, 65 to 48.

Maryland Second
In another conference game, North Carolina beat Virginia, 73 to 66. Both games served to mix up the standings thoroughly.

Before last night, the listing order was N. C. State, Duke, Maryland and North Carolina. Today, it is Duke (8-2), 10th-ranked Maryland (6-2), N. C. State (4-3) and North Carolina (7-3). The over-all records of the four teams are, respectively, 13-5, 13-3, 14-4 and 14-4.

Of course, the standings mean nothing when it comes to participating in the NCAA post-season championships. A conference tournament will decide the NCAA entry.

Duke, ranked 15th in the nation but on the rise, led the Wolfpack, 27 to 18, at the half. State, ranked ninth, came back strong after intermission and pulled to within one point.

However, Duke reopened the gap. Bucky Allen led the Blue Devils with 17 points.

Brennan Leads Attack
North Carolina had to score eight points in the last minute and a half to beat Virginia. All-American candidate Pete Brennan popped in 26 points to be high man for the Tar Heels, ranked 13th.

The ACC isn't the only conference to have a close race. The battle in the Southwest Conference is very tight, too.

Arkansas' surprising Razorbacks still lead the loop, but the Rice Institute Owls, pre-season favorites, have lost no ground. Arkansas nipped Southern Methodist, 65 to 63, and Rice beat Texas A&M, 67 to 57. The Pork-ers now are 7-2 while Rice is 6-2.

SMU has slipped to 5-3 and is tied with Texas Tech, which shipped Baylor, 74 to 72. The Bears are winless in conference competition.

San Francisco, ranked third in the nation, won its 17th game, in 18 outings by crushing St. Mary's, 69 to 49. It was the season's first defeat for the Gaels in West Coast Athletic Conference play.

Other scores included Niagara 83, Holy Cross 73; Providence 59, Rhode Island 30; St. Bonaventure 85, St. Francis (Pa.) 69; St. John's 73, Hofstra 56; Virginia Tech 73, Washington and Lee 64; Furman 85, Davidson 70; Memphis State 58, Murray State 50; Tennessee Tech 85, Western Kentucky 73.

Tar Heels And Terps Still Lead Statistics

GREENSBORO, N. C. (P)—North Carolina and Maryland continue to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring efficiency, but Duke is gaining rapidly.

According to ACC Service Bureau compilations for games through Monday night, the Tar Heels lead scoring with 74.7 points a game, and the tall Terps lead defense with an average yield of only 57.8 points. Both teams have average scoring advantages of 10.3 points a game over the opposition.

For the season, Duke is four points off the offensive pace, almost 10 off the defensive pace. Its average margin over the opposition is only 3.3 points. But for the half-dozen games beginning with the victory over top-ranked West Virginia and ending with last Saturday's 91-75 romp over North Carolina, the Blue Devil story is somewhat different.

In those six games, Duke has averaged 75.8 points a game to the opposition's 62.5, a difference of 13.3 a game.

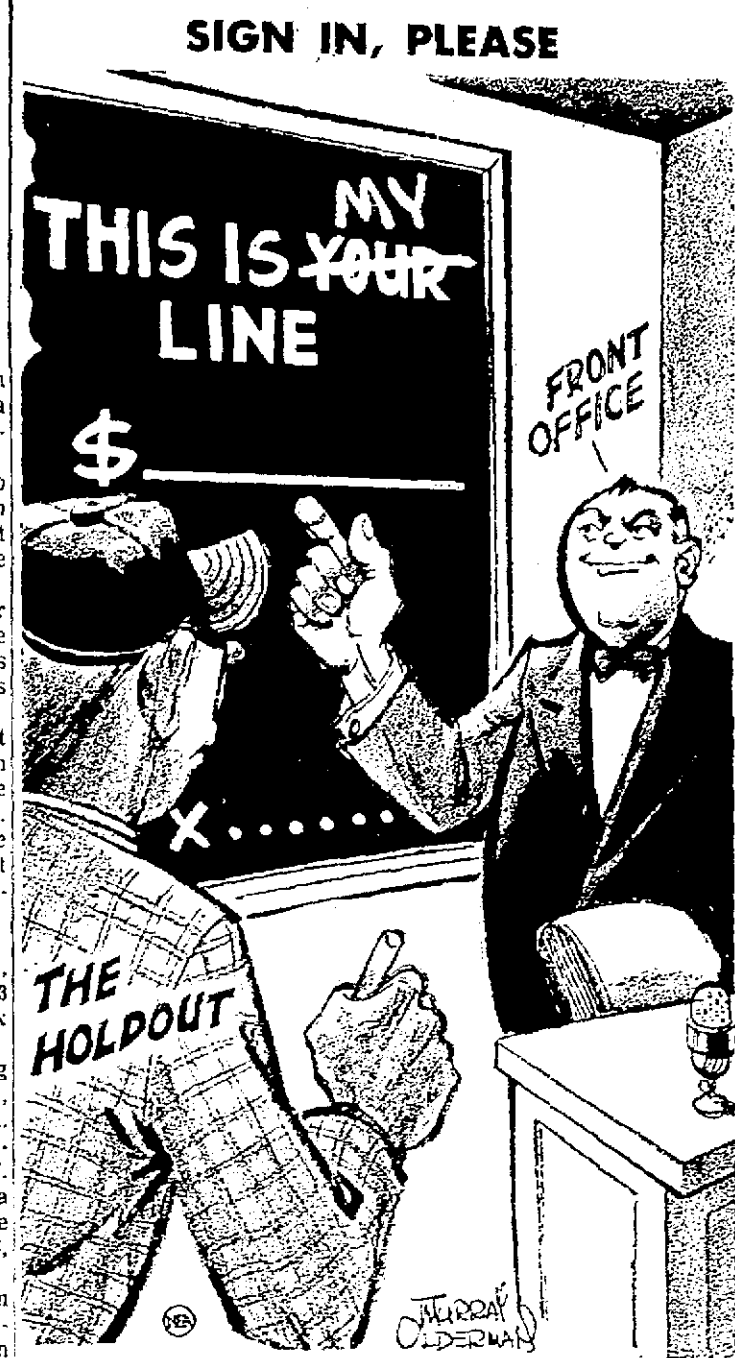

Meantime, the individual race is still Pete Brennan's private show. The Tar Heel's now averaging 20.2 points a game to 18.0 for Herb Busch of Virginia.

Standard Poodle King Of Dogdom

NEW YORK (P)—Ch. Putter Cove Promise, a high stepping standard poodle, emerged from a carnage of shocking Westminster Kennel Club reversals today as the king of dogdom.

Promise, owned by the Putter Cove Kennels of Manchester, Mass., won best-in-show last night in the 82nd edition of the ancient dog show, the most coveted award of the canine set.

To accomplish his feat, Promise had to step over the remains of five pre-show favorites including last year's top winner, Ch. Shir Khan of Grandeur, the aighan.

Yanks Ready To Go After 'Big Names'

NEW YORK—(INS)—Lee MacPhail, assistant to New York Yankee general manager George Weiss, heads for Florida today to try to sign the reluctant stars of the Bronx Bombers to 1958 contracts.

Although the signing of ace shortstop Gil McDougald was announced yesterday, there still are 15 unsigned Yankees, including such big names as Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron, Whitey Ford, Bob Turley, Don Larsen, Tom Sturdivant, Johnny Kucks and Sal Maglie.

While he is in St. Petersburg, MacPhail also will gather facts for Weiss on an exhibition game Sunday in which Mantle, Ford and Turley took part.

Weiss criticized the stars yesterday for playing in the game, the general manager said Mantle, bothered in the World Series by shoulder and leg injuries, "certainly shouldn't have played without any previous workouts."

Weiss also pointed out that Ford had shoulder trouble most of the 1957 season and had received an off-season examination at the Mayo Clinic. The slick southpaw was advised to take up punching the bag in an effort to strengthen his arm.

Mantle is said to be seeking a $75,000 contract and Ford is asking an estimated $35,000. Weiss said the current Yankee payroll is the highest in the club's history and is up one-third over five years ago.

McDougald reportedly is getting $35,000, an increase of about $5,000 over his 1957 salary. He hit .289 last season.

Hagan's Shooting Paces Hawk Win

By The Associated Press
The St. Louis Hawks, despite their internal squabbles of the past week, are a step closer to the Western Division National Basketball Assn. title today, thereby probably insuring Coach Alex Hannum's job for next season.

The Hawks, with some late hot shooting by Cliff Hagan, defeated the New York Knicks 107-105 and whittled their magic number to 10—any combination of wins and second place Cincinnati's losses—to clinch the division title.

The Boston Celtics, with the same magic number, lost to Syracuse 84-76 in the first game of a Philly Convention Hall twinbill, after which the torrid Philadelphia Warriors defeated Detroit 115-93. Cincinnati knocked off Minneapolis 106-103 in the opener of the doubleheader at St. Louis.

Trinity Five Plays Presbyterian Today

Trinity Lutheran will meet First Presbyterian today, 5 p. m., in the only Central YMCA Sunday School Basketball League contest on tap at the "Y" court.

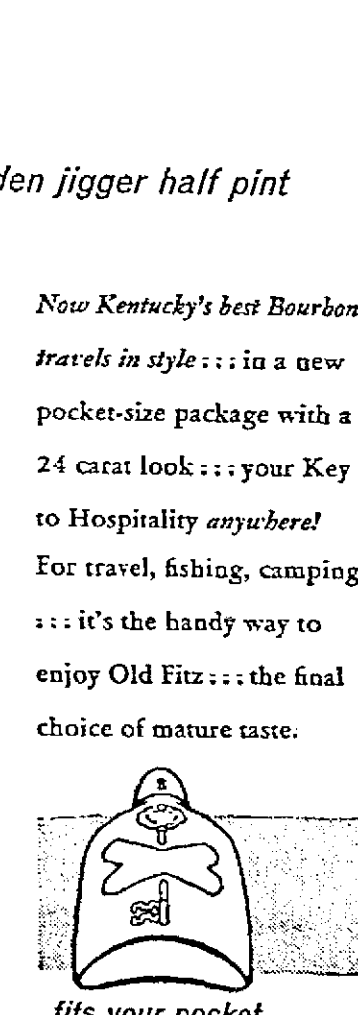

Emmanuel Episcopal won by forfeit yesterday over St. Mark's Reformed when the latter was unable to put a team on the court for their first flight tilt.

West Virginia Meets VMI, Potomac Host To Freshmen

By The Associated Press
West Virginia will be playing its second to last Southern Conference game of the season tonight when it takes on Virginia Military Institute at Municipal Auditorium in Bluefield.

The Mountaineers made VMI their first victim in the season opener at Morgantown, which ended up with them on top by 109-50.

Of the 18 games West Virginia has played since, it lost only one, two of the weakest teams in the going under to Duke, raised itself state. Salem has the relatively to the position of the nation's more impressive record — 5-14, number one team for seven with its victories garnered after a season got well under way, perfect conference record while Concord has sunk to within two places of the bottom of the standings by losing ten times and winning only twice.

Trying To Regain Top
The Mountaineers lost their top spot in the ratings this week and will be trying to get it back by giving their all against Bluefield and Penn State, their Saturday opponent.

After Monday night's 82-68 victory over William and Mary at Morgantown, West Virginia is assured of at least a first place tie in the Southern Conference.

VMI doesn't have the kind of past that would make it seem a threat to WVU's future. It has a 4-10 over-all record, nothing very formidable in itself, and picked up only one of the rare victories in its seven conference games.

Precedent also makes the outlook for West Virginia bright. It has beaten the Keydets 17 times since 1945, while losing only twice. The Mountaineers will take an even 85 points per game average on the court tonight — which looks even better when compared to the combined opposition's average of 65.8.

In State Conference competition, just two games will be played tonight.

Bluefield At West Liberty
Two of the stronger teams will be meeting at West Liberty, where the home college will host Bluefield State.

Bluefield has played only seven conference games this season, the smallest number posted by any of the 17 member teams, but it has raised itself to third place through taking only one loss.

West Liberty has seen more action but has done less well, establishing itself in sixth place with a 10-5 record.

Potomac State Home

A fourth game tonight will put Potomac State, which has won eight out of 21 against all comers. The game will be played in Keyser, starting at 8 p. m.

Last night both of the State Conference leaders continued their winning ways as three games affecting the standings were played.

Conference leader West Virginia Tech ran its unbroken victory string up to 17 in a high scoring 4-10 over-all record, nothing very formidable in itself, and picked up only one of the rare victories in its seven conference games.

The scoring honors went to Tech's Albert Cook (39 points) and MH's Dale Russell (36 points). For consolation, Morris Harvey had the knowledge that it was the first team this season to get more than 100 points against Tech while its league count fell to 11-3.

Hermans Play Caseys Today

Old Germans have a chance of picking up a half game on the City Basketball League leaders tonight when the Hermans meet winless Knights of Columbus at 8:30 on the Carver court.

The Old Gees are third behind deadlocked Moose and Old Exports with a 1-1 record. The pacesetters have won all three starts. The Caseys have yet to win for three second-half starts.

Chaney's Transportation, in fourth place with a 1-2 log, will tangle with Forty & Eight's cagers at 7 o'clock in tonight's opener. The Forty & Eight hoopsters have lost both second-half starts.

The league will hold an open house at the Loyal Order of Moose Home tonight at 7:30. Officials and players of all teams have been invited. A luncheon and refreshments will be served.

THE River Divide Farm led the 1957 stables at Monmouth Park, scoring 11 victories. Owners Mrs. H. H. Hecht and W. H. Bishop tied for second, each with 7 winners.

Légion Favors Advancing Of Route 40 Plan

Members of Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, unanimously passed a resolution last night urging state officials to move the US Route 40 construction between Hancock and Cumberland to an immediate project phase.

J. L. Towler, representing the Route 40 Association, outlined the plan for improving Route 40 and told the Legionnaires that Cumberland and this area is vitally interested in getting the entire route between Hancock and Cumberland rebuilt as soon as possible.

Post Commander Harold W. Davis said the Legionnaires adopted the resolution unanimously.

Dr. Calvin Y. Hadidian, a member of the medical advisory board of Allegany-Garrett Heart Association, narrated a color film of an operation performed on a "blue baby" at a Maryland hospital, and explained to the Legionnaires how this particular period of heart research, was a break-through into other and more recent heart surgery.

F. Allan Weatherholt, Heart Association president, outlined the activities of the Heart Association here. He noted that the first major financial contribution ever made to the national, as well as the local heart program, came from Legionnaires.

The post announced that its membership drive for this year had reached a total of 1,035 members, one of the highest on record this time of the year. Fort Cumberland Post is one of the largest in the state.

The membership was informed that a heart benefit dance has been planned at the post home, Harrison Street, on February 22, and that the annual Legion birthday party will be held March 17, with a buffet luncheon and dance at the post home.

Phil Fleming, chef de gare of Voiture 164, Society of the 40 and 80 said the unit will meet at the Voiture home today at 6:30 p.m. to go to Westernport to pay their respects to James Kenny, a member of the Voiture who died suddenly this week.

County Asked "Hans Brinker" Story Too Fragile For Critic

Program Set Tomorrow By Area Scouts

NEW YORK (AP) — Anyone who enjoys watching professional ice skating must have found pleasure in viewing "Hans Brinker or The Silver Skates." It was quite a vehicle for skaters Dick Button and Ellie Simmonds.

But a sumptuously mounted indoor skating rink does not make a play with music or a musical play or whatever was the way they defined the Hall of Fame production on NBC-TV. Both story and music were too fragile to sustain interest—at least my personal interest.

"Hans Brinker" bored me so much that the only fair way to discuss it is to be personal about it. I could have borne its tired little plot if I could have remembered one of its prosaic musical numbers two bars after it ended. And I could have borne both plot and music if its characterizations of Willems, the scout executive of the Macaulay District, will speak to others who will be on the program include George H. Fisk, neighborhood commissioner; C. Walden Skinner, institutional representative; William B. Hilbert Jr., assistant explorer district commissioner; Paul Cornwell, district camping chairman, Rev. W. W. Patterson, pastor of the church which sponsors the scout organizations, and Harry J. Biggs, Jamboree scoutmaster.

George Frick is scoutmaster of Troop 10 and Kenneth M. Stone is advisor to Post 10.

Over 13,000 Use Facilities At Berkeley

CHARLESTON — (AP) — Superintendent Eston D. Vanorad reported today that 13,254 persons paid $12,132.40 for swimming and bathing facilities at the Berkeley Springs Sanitarium in a period running from last April 16 to Dec. 31.

His report to the commissioner of public institutions reflected gains of 4,322 patients and $2,969.72 in receipts over the same 1956 period.

The Eastern Panhandle facility, offers baths and swimming pools, utilizing Berkeley Springs' warm and medicinal waters.

Tradition going back as far as 1736 has held the 74-degree water to be helpful in treatment of rheumatism, gout, diabetes and skin diseases.

In recent years, the sanitarium has been expanded to include a Cumberland Police Department, modern open air swimming pool, Chief R. Emmett Flynn said with dressing facilities and sun bathing; and a new bath house which has Roman baths and other types for year-around use.

Teacher Pay Raise Given Board Support

Public school teachers should be paid the full $400 pay increase under House Bill 253, passed last week over Gov. McKeldin's veto of last year, it was agreed yesterday afternoon by the Allegany County Board of Education.

However, Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster said the only real information he had to present to the board was an estimate from the State Department of Education that Allegany County should receive $359,650 a year under HB 253.

The present salary scale is from a minimum of $3,300 in the first year to a maximum of $5,100 in the 13th year. Next year, under a schedule devised by the Green Commission formula, the top pay will be realized in the 13th year. It remains to be seen whether the schedule next year will range from $3,700 in the first year to $5,500 in the 13th year for a holder of a bachelor's degree. A teacher with a master's degree gets $500 a year more.

The school board agreed to allow a group of employees of Allegany Ballistics Laboratory permission to use the Beall High School auditorium in Frostburg for their "Rocket Revue" April 11 and 12.

Four of the five board members, Kenneth R. Malcolm, Mrs. Albert C. Cook, Mrs. L. Brooks Starcher and Joseph M. Miller, attended the meeting along with the board's attorney, William H. Geppert. Only J. Goodloe Jackson was unable to attend.

Mary Haworth Mail...
Editors Note: Mother asks how to guide teenage girl through serious risks of steady dating.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH:
How guide a daughter, not quite 16, about going steady? The boy, her age, seems to be getting too serious; or rather say, Thelma confided to me last night that they had a big discussion and he admitted being much in love with her.

I haven't asked about her feelings for him; but I do know that she is very flattered to have a boy's confession of love. This is her first steady boy friend; and for six months they've been together almost daily, at school and elsewhere; and are constantly on the telephone.

Thelma is usually very reasonable; and an honor student, though not brilliant. I seem to have her respect and confidence. The boy, I'll call him George, seems very insecure and immature. He comes of a broken home; the father was alcoholic; and the mother supports the two of them. George doesn't have any spare time jobs — and I don't know what efforts, if any, he has made along this line.

C&O To Layoff 1,000 Workers
HUNTINGTON — A business decline and drop in rail traffic will cause layoff of 1,000 Chesapeake & Ohio Railway employees by Feb. 24, the railroad announced.

The heavy repair department at the Russell, Ky., shops will close next Monday, affecting 200 men who will be recalled "as needed."

Another 719 men will be laid off at locomotive and coach shops here and 68 reclamation plant employees at Barbourville will be furloughed Saturday.

Two Huntington shops will reopen March 4, but will operate on shorter monthly schedule. No reopening date was mentioned for Barbourville.

'Embassy Run' Unique Airline Of Navy Fliers
BANGKOK, (INS) — "Embassy Run" is a magical term in Southeast Asia.

For American diplomatic and military personnel in numerous countries in the long tropical tropics. And would like to see the stretch under the bulge of Red China it is the one sure link with civilization.

The "embassy run" is courtesy of the U. S. Navy. It is the single airline flown by the Military Transport Service to countries ranging from the Philippines to Saudia Arabia.

It is the only means by which needed supplies, household furnishings, special mail and travelers on order can reach these tropical countries without great outlays of money for commercial facilities.

Once a week, every week, great Super Constellation 7V's make the long trek all the way west from Travis Air Force Base in California clear across to Dhahran, Saudia Arabia. And once a week they return.

Confused Flour Beetle Booklet Released
WASHINGTON — (INS) — The "confused flour beetle"—a major pest in wheat bins—isn't confused at all. Agriculture Department bug experts say it's people who are confused.

The oddly-named insect came to light today in a new department booklet, "Insect Control In Flour Mills," and prompted newsmen's questions. Dr. Lyman H. Johnson explained that entomologists gave the bug its label because they kept confusing it with another insect—probably the red flour beetle.

Kay Morgan Reaches Divorce Agreement
NEW YORK—(INS)—Kay Sumnersby Morgan, wartime chauffeur-secretary to then General Eisenhower, said last night she had reached an agreement with her stockbroker husband to file suit for divorce.

The settlement was reached today in Bridgeport, Conn., in a meeting between Reginald H. Morgan of Weston, Conn., Mrs. Morgan and their attorneys. It provides that she will receive $3,800 a year for life or until she remarries. Mrs. Morgan said.

Johnstown Man To Compose Overture
BETHANY, W. Va. (P)—Robert Bernat, a Bethany College music instructor from Johnstown, Pa., has been commissioned by the Wheeling Symphony Orchestra to compose an overture for presentation by the symphony March 27.

Bernat said the work will be completed by March 2. He explained that the overture will be a tribute to Wheeling Steel Corp., entitled, "The Fleur de Lis Overture." The name is taken from the company's emblem.

Eight Perish In Fire At Alliance, Ohio
ALLIANCE, Ohio — (INS) — Eight members of an Alliance family, including seven children, Council of Family Relations, and perished early today in a fire which raged through their two-YMCA's Associated Press in story frame home.

Alliance Fire Chief Milo Sights said the dead included the father, Robert Lilly, 35, and seven of his eight children.

Special Message For Adolescents
Also of course she won't feel that she can afford to discriminate; to pick and choose. Instead she will tend to be warmly grateful for admiring interest even from a plainly faulty or inferior source — as seems to be the case of Thelma, with George. Now, to answer the question of how to help Thelma get safely through the rapids of adolescence, and mature without damage to her fine potentials — my advice is: Make her a present of Evelyn Duvall's fine book titled "Facts of Life and Love for Teen-Agers." Dr. Duvall is Eight members of an Alliance family, including seven children, Council of Family Relations, and perished early today in a fire which raged through their two-YMCA's Associated Press in story frame home.

500 Furloughed At Hagerstown
HAGERSTOWN — Some 500 employees of Fairchild Aircraft Division have been laid off because of military contract stretch-outs and reprogramming.

Richard L. Boutelle, president, noted yesterday that 2,500 workers were shifted from military to commercial projects. He said the firm had no alternative but to lay off the 500.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars. For Thursday, Feb. 12, 1958:

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — Think with form and spirit; plan what you say, even those short, seemingly everyday remarks. You will soon be a far better conversationalist and thinker. Improve today.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus) — When we waste time or energies, we always pay for it — in lost advantages as well as in having to crowd later and not be truly free to enjoy leisure time. The day's good aspects urge vim.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) — Build this period into the bright, hopeful one it can be with your ingenuity and lively spirit. Don't hesitate when confronted with opposition, accept it for the worth that is in it. Systematize.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer) — Going to excellent opportunities, you should take all possible precautions not to overlook small gains, benefits and any efficient suggestions, if no principle is harmed.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) — You can do more with this type of day than you may think if you use all your God-given abilities, curbing annoyance at others' ways and overcome a likely fear of criticism.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — A step forward, no matter how small, is commendable. Those many "little" good advances can build a happy, progressive life. Some new methods, devices and items for your personal.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Don't slacken a good pace. If you have one, if you do not, then turn to quickly and assume the lead. Build this period into the bright, hopeful one it can be with your ingenuity and lively spirit. Don't hesitate when confronted with opposition, accept it for the worth that is in it. Systematize.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Scorpio) — Ask and you shall receive quicker, and asking with a smile will get better results fast. This day build your top income, your initiative and creativity. And begin.

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 23 (Sagittarius) — With the fine aspects, courage from various directions, you can make a big day out of this one in a lasting, healthy way for personal interest, family strength and otherwise.

DECEMBER 24 to JANUARY 23 (Capricorn) — Watch that you don't overdo others' opinions or wishes. Some people remember to curb emotions under stress, others speak out impulsively and happily. Control your attitude.

JANUARY 24 to FEBRUARY 23 (Aquarius) — Industry, clerical work, writing, signing papers, handling various details, extra chores given by others, music, study and health matters will thrive under thoughtful care.

FEBRUARY 24 to MARCH 23 (Pisces) — There may be those who would try to dissuade you from your duty, or who talk big but are cowards. Rightful obligations must come first, then outside interests.

YOU NOW TODAY are calm, dignified, and respect others' rights. In excitement, you can be depended upon for chores done quickly, can take rebuffs without counter-charges. Don't let your nature become subservient. Reserve is commendable but you must stir also for your own niche, fulfilling your interests, gaining your own laurels, and giving more time to your affairs than in the main build. Your hands made upon you. Music, dancing, children, travel, decorating, revivifying are in your field. Play daily for ready emotion, faith in yourself, and never let good habits slip. Birthdays: Abraham Lincoln, George Meredith, Boris.

Bad Bidding Pays South

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

If you think crime doesn't pay occasionally take a look at today's hand.

South had a nice normal one spade bid with 14 points and a fair five card suit. When North bid two spades South should have passed and been happy. If he felt very optimistic he might have tried three spades. As it was his jump to four spades constituted a bridge crime.

Due to good play, a very fortunate series of breaks and failure of East and West to find the killing defense he actually made his contract.

The ace of clubs won the first trick and a club was returned. South won the trick, cashed his king of hearts, led a heart to dummy's ace, ruffed a heart, led and ruffed his last club and led dummy's last heart. East discarded a club this best play; and South ruffed again.

Now South led a spade and as you can see by looking at all the cards the hand was home. Either East or West would have to lead a diamond to give South three diamond tricks or West would have to lead a club to give South a ruff and a discard.

Look at all the breaks South needed to get away with his crime. Spades had to break two-to-one, East had to hold both the ace of clubs and king of diamonds and West had to hold four hearts and the ten of diamonds. Even with all those breaks a trump opening and continuation would have beaten the hand.

What do you do?
A—Bid four spades. If your partner has a maximum two no-trump he will bid again; otherwise four spades will be a sound contract.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
